

CCSC Careers In Our Curriculum

English

	Curriculum Links	Employer Encounters/Ideas	Career Opportunities
Year 7	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Autobiographies – learning about a range of careers and professions through non-fiction texts: journalism, blogging, formal and informal writing Formal letter writing – essential skills to help employment skills: application writing, use of standard English Newspaper reading/writing – looking at practical careers in English. CAD, advertising, design Improving speech and language as transferrable skills in a workplace-setting. Building confidence, team work and leadership skills. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> An Interview with a Journalist explores what the job entails, how she got there and how she uses English in her everyday job (GA) Instagrammer to work with pupils on advert-based tasks: use of ICT to create and promote adverts via the social media platform. (KM) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Author Journalist Blogger TV Presenter Teacher Copywriter Proof-reader TV Broadcasting, Producing Scriptwriter Actor Writer Editor Lecturer Barrister Magistrate Researcher Librarian Recruitment and HR Curator Advertising
Year 8	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Speech and language skills – being able to articulate their opinion in an appropriate way: public speaking, debate, Visiting speaker allows pupils to discuss careers in charity work. Improving speech and language as transferrable skills in a workplace-setting. Curriculum links to A-Level and beyond. Historical links and investigation of beliefs, Developing a wider understanding of cultures to promote acceptance of diversity in the workplace. Film and Media – looking at practical careers in English. Careers Evening information booklet/options tasters – allows students and their parents access to good quality information for future study options. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> MP offer a script writing session to embed key skills learned and how to apply in a real setting (EW) Blogger and Instagrammer offer an insight into the world of social media through their online home interior business (KM)
Key Stage 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Macbeth performance – visiting guest speakers give pupils the opportunity to speak to actors about their career choices. Curriculum links to further and higher education topics. Research skills. Ability to write in a range of genres. This allows pupils to develop an understanding of formal writing techniques that are essential for life beyond school. Reading a range of fiction and non-fiction texts that build an understanding of the world around them. Practising presentation skills. Speaking and Listening 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Manchester Travelling Actors offer a Q&A session after a performance to support the learning of key Literature texts. Specific questions about their jobs feature (AP) Radio presenter offers a workshop on a “behind the scenes” insight for writing their programme and delivering the show to an audience (KM) MP offer a script writing session to embed key skills learned and how to apply in a real setting (EW) University 	