Kings Sixth Form College 	We believe that each student deserves the best possible support in their transition through Post 16 education and this website will assist in setting our students off on that journey into Year 12 and 13. It also will highlight the expectations and high standards we have of you in Sixth Form. As a member of our Sixth Form, your learning environment will change considerably Post 16. There is a mutual trust and respect that you will learn for both your teachers and your studies. You will find that your relationships with your teachers become more of a partnership, where you will work together to navigate towards your aspirations and goals. You need to be prepared to work independently and self-motivate, setting realistic deadlines and targets for yourself. Resilience and perseverance will be two words that you hear over the next two years, as the step up to the Post 16 pathways, be it A Level, BTEC or blended is a challenging one. But you will be surrounded by a team of staff that are trained to get the very best from you and guide you every step of the way.	https://thekings.staffs.sch.uk/topic/sixth-form - Homepage https://thekings.staffs.sch.uk/life-at-the-sixth-form/ - Life at the Sixth Form https://thekings.staffs.sch.uk/course-expectations/ - Course Expectations
Equality Training 	E.Quality Training is a Staffordshire work-based Training Provider that puts learner experience at the forefront of its business practices. We provide vocational training in the 5 specialist areas listed below, primarily focussed on Apprenticeships and Study Programmes (pre-apprenticeships) for anyone aged over 16. The business started in 1999 and has grown to include 3 training centres in Staffordshire.
