This weeks writing challenges

Rhiannon's Reading Recommendations

Week six

Miss White's Recommendations!

Miss White recommends reading 'Rebecca' by Daphne du Maurier for English. It's a fab gothic novel, full of suspense and mystery. A young woman marries a wealthy widower, only to discover that he and his household are haunted by the memory of his first wife: Rebecca. When she read it for the first time, she finished the book within a day, and has reread it many times since! So good.

When Miss White was younger, she loved reading all of the Jacqueline Wilson books! She's written absolutely loads, but one of my favourites was 'The Lottie Project'. Whenever a new book was written by her, she would borrow it from the library asap. Miss White even met Jacqueline Wilson at a book signing when she was younger, and she signed my copy of 'Tracy Beaker'!

Izzy Conyon's Y9 Recommendations!

Izzy Conyon recommends a book called 'After' by Anna Todd. Izzy likes this because it is her type of genre. There is a film series based on the book. She recommends this to teens/young adults. Please check the age ratings before reading this, as it is not suitable for all ages! 😊

Rhiannon's Recommendations

I recommend 'Beauty Sleep' by Kathryn Evans. I found this book on Sora, whilst looking for a good book to read, and I love it. I only started yesterday and I am already obsessed! I can't wait to read more. 🙌

Also, I recommend an author called Holly Bourne. She writes lots of books, which are on Sora, and I love them too!

I'm loving the new Sora app!
