

Miss A Wynters

Schooling

I went to lots of different primary schools because we moved house a lot when I was younger.

I went to Edensor Technology College (now The Discovery Academy).

In year 10 and year 11 I also went to Stoke College one day a week to study Catering.

Further Education and Qualifications

University of London Institute in Paris

I spent 3 years living and studying for my BA(hons) French Studies in Paris. I was awarded a 2:1 with a Distinction in Spoken French.

My degree included French language, history, art, literature, politics and economics.
