WORDLE

This week we have an Italian Wordle from Issy C

<https://mywordle.strivemath.com/?word=agjhci&lang=any>

At the moment, we are designing scarecrows for a competition! We will choose the best one which we will then make into a real scarecrow that will hopefully be on display at the Dorothy Clive garden in September. We have started thinking about it, but anyone can come along and join in – so get your thinking caps on!

English Stars Of The Week

KDR: Grace Lockett Y10 – for her ace attitude and effort towards the poetry. Well done, Grace!

KM: Alicia Brearley Y10 – for being mature about her learning, attending booster, applying herself in independent and generally making me a very happy Melv ❤️

SW: Brooke Tidyman Y10 – providing me with chocolate biscuits (and working really hard!)

EW: Greg Heeland Y8 – amazing effort in this week's assessment, a huge well done! 😊

GA: Bobby Woodward Y9 – for contributing some amazing ideas during our poetry lessons this week and for being my designated anthology distributor!

KW: Emmy-Lee Matthews 10/3 – AMAZING poetry comparison essay, she should be super proud of herself!! 🍷

RF: Lewis Shaw-Pelan Y7 for an excellent attitude towards his assessment and trying his best!

What a week we have had! Creative Learning Week, Year 10 Work Experience and then finished with our Year 11 Prom. The pupils have had such an amazing time being on activities out of the norm. This is always our favourite week of the year and the pupils have been nothing short of exceptional.

Creative Learning Week Blog – Day 5 Friday

Leonardo - Today we finished our Mona Lisa paintings, some pretty good work. Then a big old clean up!

Vogue - Today we had our hair styled by hairdressers from Sista Hair and Beauty ready for our pamper day. We have been able to paint our nails, face paint and create fashion accessories such as designing our own canvas bags and making our own friendship bracelets. A great end to a fun week!

Year 7 PE - Today the year 7 pupils have had their final day of activities including: Quiddich, Longball, Long jump, vortex throw and finally a sports quiz. They have been fantastic this week and have demonstrated some great enthusiasm, effort, and sportsmanship.

Big Bad Boss Bonanza - Friday was our rewards day for a week of working hard and pitching yesterday. The Big Boss team spent the day at Alton Towers enjoying the rollercoasters! Rain was expected but we were all prepared with coats and hoodies; everyone had a lovely time

Mind How you Grow - We have spent our last day adding the finishing touches to our flower beds. We made giant labels to show which House is represented by each section of the main flower bed. Garden club will soon be adding signs which will tell you the names of all the plants. We also made fact sheets for our plants and will be putting these, along with a timeline of the week and some before and after pictures in a new display – watch this space! Finally, Friday afternoon was all about mental health and wellbeing, as we researched the health benefits of gardening and painted pebbles with a garden theme. Mr Whitehead and Mrs Rutter have been incredibly impressed with how hard all the students have worked, and with their teamwork all week. They should all be very proud of the huge difference they have made to our school.

Make Your Own Movie - On Friday, Make Your Own Movie celebrated the hard work everyone had put into their short films with our showcase and Oscars ceremony. Staff around school were invited to watch pupils' films and vote for their favourite. Awards were also given based on their hard work and efforts across the week.

Best Actor Macauley Edwards
Best Director Olivia Garnham
Best Cinematographer Luke Sawyer
Best Editor Izzy-May Mitchell
Best Costume Jake Morrey
Best Promotion Luke Pullin

Overall, the winning film of the week was 'The Perfect Day', created by Saira Ahmed, Jake Morrey, Macauley Edwards, Olivia Garnham and Isabelle Springett.

For our Oscars afterparty, we had snacks and pupils got to vote on the film they wanted to watch at the end of the day.

Going Places - We landed at our final destination on 'Going Places' at RAF Cosford! The fantastic venue with hangars full of historic aeroplanes and airways related artefacts, including the Stoke-on-Trent designed world famous Spitfire, plus numerous other WW2 aircraft and vehicles! The group enjoyed tours of the Cold War exhibition and planes of WW1. We lunched in the Crew room and continued our tour with inactive simulators and 4D theatre! Pupils completed a quiz and bought souvenirs from the gift shop before departing back home in first class! All enjoyed the week of going places and learnt a lot about the history of Britain's transport development!

Medical Marvels - We completed our week this week with a visit from an A&E nurse who brought with her some medical equipment for us to try: we checked oxygen levels and listened to heart beats as well trying our hands at bandaging and casting. Lots of career exploration and a brilliant question and answer session that gave us a first-hand insight into the role. We ended the day awarding prizes for those who have performed consistently well across the week. Today's MEDICAL MARVELS were: RYAN STRINGER and LEWIS SIMPSON.

Week Award Winners:

Medical Marvel of the Week: Logan BIRCHALL

Y8 Winner: Aimee Price

Y9 Winner: Lewis Simpson

Y10 Winner: Ellie May Jones

Advert Design Winners: Damilola and Ruby

Advert Runners Up: Jayden Middleton and Lewis Simpson

Go Outdoors – We finished the busy week with a lovely stroll around Hawkstone park. An adventure through the follies finding the trolls and taking in the breath taking views and peaceful sounds.

All kids have been an absolute god send and it has been a pleasure to experience such an amazing week with a great group of kids.

Cooperation

6th International Day of Co-operatives
(Week beginning 4th July 2022)

The British Co-operative Society- now a worldwide model International Day of Co-operatives 6 July 2022.

PHOTOGRAPH OF THIRTEEN OF THE ORIGINAL MEMBERS
OF THE
ROCHDALE EQUITABLE PIONEERS' SOCIETY.

There were earlier societies, but even those that survived came to adopt the Rochdale pattern of Co-operation as the best means of operating a Co-operative society and fulfilling its aims. Rochdale became a model for the formation of similar Co-operative societies throughout the United Kingdom and around the World.

(Other retailers are available!)

The Co-operative Movement across the world has its roots in the Lancashire textile town of Rochdale, England, where, in 1844, harsh living conditions and inadequate consumer protection - the adulteration of food by private traders was widespread - prompted 28 working men to adopt a new approach to the supply of food and other goods and the provision of social and educational facilities for ordinary working people by setting up a retail Co-operative society, the Rochdale Equitable Pioneers Society.

Those 28 men scraped together a meagre capital and opened a shop in Toad Lane, where they sold wholesome food at reasonable prices. A share of the profit or surplus as they preferred to call it, was returned to members in proportion to their purchases - the famous Co-operative dividend or "divi". The Pioneers and other early Co-operators owed much of their inspiration to the Co-operative writings of Dr William King, a Brighton physician and philanthropist, and Robert Owen, a Welsh manufacturer and social reformer. From the decisions and practices of the Pioneers, based on the Owenite theories of Co-operation, the Rochdale Principles of Co-operation were formulated. These included: voluntary and open membership; democratic control - one member, one vote; payment of limited interest on capital; surplus allocated in proportion to members' purchases - the dividend; and educational facilities for members and workers.
